CITYWIDE NEIGHBORHOOD HOLIDAY LIGHTS CONTEST DETAILS ANNOUNCED

At the November 16 City Council meeting, Mayor Rick Becksted announced the return of the Neighborhood Holiday Lights Contest for 2020, to give residents a way to celebrate together this holiday season. Now the Portsmouth Citywide Neighborhood Committee is announcing the details. Residents are invited to register to participate in the contest by completing this form: <http://eepurl.com/dg7Gw> The deadline to enter is December 10, 2020. (For a printable pdf of the entry form and more information, visit <https://www.cityofportsmouth.com/city/2020-holiday-lights-contest> Print out the form, scan it and email it to hotline@cityofportsmouth.com or mail c/o City Manager's Office, City Hall, One Junkins Avenue, Portsmouth NH 03801. The contest is open to every Portsmouth resident. Participants can choose one of two categories for judging of their outdoor light displays:

- Classic Light Display
- Creative Light Display

Contest entries will be judged by school-aged children, who will be driven through their assigned neighborhoods (not their own) to make their choices of the best holiday lights displays. Judging will take place between December 12 and 20. The Committee will create a map of the Holiday Lights Contest entries so that residents can tour the lighted locations route by car.

The winners of the following awards will be announced by Mayor Becksted at the December 21 City Council meeting;

- Best Classic/Traditional Display – $500 Ricci Lumber Gift Certificate
- Most Creative Display – $500 Home Depot Gift Certificate
- Best Overall Display – $500 Lowe’s Gift Certificate
- Honorable Mentions – $25 Gift Certificates

In addition, to the prize donors, Seacoast Media Group is an in-kind sponsor, providing publicity and advertising space for the contest.

ACCESS TO SENIOR CENTER AND LIBRARY REDUCED:

SENIOR ACTIVITY CENTER: As of Wednesday, November 25, the Senior Activity Center will pause programming, through the holidays due to widespread community transmission of COVID-19. The Center staff remain available to help the senior community connect to resources. Meals on Wheels will continue to provide the Mon-Fri home delivered meals and will still offer a holiday “grab & go meal” on December 17. RSVP by Fri, Dec 11 at 9 am to 603-610-4433.

PORTSMOUTH PUBLIC LIBRARY RETURNS TO CURBSIDE AND ONLINE SERVICES -- Until further notice, the Library is not able to offer browsing, computer use, or any other services inside the building. You can still check out materials by placing a hold for Curbside Pickup – which are now offered on demand. You can also continue to return library materials, get recommendations, attend online events, and access all online services. For more information, click here: <https://www.cityofportsmouth.com/library/currentservices>

REMINDERS:

APPOINTMENTS WITH CITY OFFICES: are available to help reduce indoor mingling of households. City offices (Tax, Assessors, City Clerk, Inspections, etc.) are staggering shifts and working remotely when they can to reduce risk. You can make an appointment at any time to meet with these offices in person.

PAY YOUR CITY BILLS ONLINE -- The newly approved $14.70 per $1,000 in valuation property tax rate will be reflected in the tax bills mailed this month, with the first half due 30 days after they are mailed and the second half due in June 2021. Again this year, the City of Portsmouth offers an online tax calculator at <https://www.cityofportsmouth.com/tax/online-property-tax-calculator> for residents to use to estimate their tax bill for Fiscal Year 2021. With COVID-19 precautions still in place, the City urges taxpayers to make their tax bill payments online, where they will receive an instant confirmation and receipt.

SEACOAST SAFE PLEDGE -- One way to demonstrate your ongoing commitment to the health and safety of the community and to let people know you are taking all the recommended steps to mitigate the spread of COVID-19 is by taking the SEACOAST SAFE Pledge- an initiative of the Seacoast Chamber Alliance. By signing the Pledge you voluntarily agree that you are:

- Following current State of NH COVID-19 Reopening Guidelines.
- Requiring employees and customers to wear face coverings indoors and in public settings where physical distancing measures are difficult to maintain.
- Arranging public spaces for physical distancing consistent with CDC guidelines.
- Having an alcohol-based hand sanitizer in high-traffic locations for employees and customers.
- Implementing workplace cleaning and disinfection practices that follow CDC guidelines including regular sanitation of high-touch surfaces.
- Not allowing employees with COVID-19 symptoms to work on-site.

DPW PROJECTS:

Islington Street -- Project wrapped up for the winter and detour discontinued.

Peirce Island Bridge Road -- Work on temporary pipe installation continues tomorrow and next week.

Banfield Road -- Last of the construction for the season will wrap up this week.

Maplewood Ave -- Work for this season has ended and construction is anticipated to resume in the Spring of 2021 around mid to late April.

TESTING-- The New Hampshire Department of Health and Human Services provides this list as a service to the community. The Department does not endorse any particular entity for COVID-19 testing services.
